DO YOU NEED ENGLISH TO ACCEPT YOUR OFFER TO STUDY OVERSEAS?

Neo Lingua International Career Centre (NLICC) has partnered with UTS Insearch the pathway college to the University of Technology Sydney (UTS) to offer English courses specifically designed to ensure you have the English language and study skills you need for successful study overseas.

Why study UTS Insearch ELICOS?

UTS Insearch:

- has been preparing students for successful study overseas for over 30 years
- is the premium pathway to the University of Technology Sydney the #1 Young University in Australia*
- offers English to approximately 6,000 students in seven countries each year (including Nepal)
- ELICOS is recognised as meeting the English language entry requirements at a range of Universities and Colleges in Australia
- ensures that students receive the same quality learning outcomes no matter where you study and you will receive a UTS Insearch certificate in recognition of this.

Why study UTS Insearch ELICOS with NLICC?

NLICC:

- offers the UTS Insearch ELICOS curriculum in Kathmandu allowing your students to prepare for study before they leave
- provides high quality English language teachers with a minimum of a Cambridge University CELTA teaching qualification
- will work with you to ensure the best outcomes for you

What will your students learn?

Language and skills taught vary depending on the level you undertake but some of the skills learnt include:

- essay writing suitable for year 1 university submission
- academic reading and comprehension
- presenting confidently in English
- participating confidently in group work activities
- time management and self directed study
- taking lectures and reading notes
- critical thinking and questioning
- how to communicate with lecturers, tutors and fellow students
- resume preparation and interview preparation

Which course is right for your students?

To ensure you enter at the right level you will either:

- have an IELTS / TOEFL or equivalent score; or
- undertake a placement test to assess their English level.

Once this is done your Agent will talk to you about the English course that you need to finalise your offer.
